FNR Science Image Competition

Terms and conditions

1. Competition

The Luxembourg National Research Fund (FNR) is organising the FNR Science Image Competition (photographs, images and videos).

2. Competition terms and conditions

The FNR Science Image Competition is open to researchers of all nationalities who work at a Luxembourgish public research institution that has research as a main or as one of its legal purpose(s) in its mission statement, or non-profit organisations and foundations engaged in scientific activities, headquartered in Luxembourg.

The following persons may not take part in the competition:

- professional photographers;
- employees of the communication departments of eligible institutions;
- members of the competition jury;
- the staff of the FNR Office.

Participation in the competition is free of charge.

3. Entries

The entry options are stated on the competition’s web page at www.fnr.lu/image-competition. The deadline, entry categories, number and technical aspects of submissions are also indicated there.

4. Prizes

4.1 Jury

The FNR will appoint the jury.
4.2 Prize money

The first prize in each category is EUR 1,000. The jury may also award distinctions worth EUR 250 each.

4.3 Outreach and exhibition of images

The FNR may disseminate the submitted entries online (FNR social media channels; fnr.lu; science.lu;…) and may resize/crop them for this purpose. Submitted images may also be put on display at one or more exhibitions. The submitted text may be adapted and published by the FNR. The FNR will not enter into any communication on this subject with participants.

5. Image rights

The participants in the competition guarantee that they have produced the entries themselves and that they hold all the necessary rights and authorisations. They remain the owners of the copyright relating to their entry. They give their permission for the entries to be published by third parties under a CC-BY-NC-ND licence (https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/): the entries may also be freely used for non-commercial purposes, provided they remain unaltered and the author is duly credited.

The works submitted must respect image ethics and must have been authorised by the persons concerned. Any representation of a physical person must be subject to that person’s consent to the dissemination of his/her image. The FNR refuses to accept any liability in this respect.

6. Legal notice

By submitting an image, the entrants fully accept these terms and conditions.

Entries that do not fully meet the above criteria or that contain incorrect or incomplete information will not be taken into consideration for the competition.

The FNR refuses to accept any liability towards participants or third parties, in particular in the event of the competition being cancelled. The FNR shall not enter into any correspondence concerning the assessment of the entries. The jury's decision is final.

7. Data protection

By filling out the participation form and ticking the ‘Data processing permission’ box in that same form, all participants stipulate to have read the FNR Privacy Statement and agree with its content.
